

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

THURSDAY EVE. OCTOBER 7, 1886

At Hawesville, this State, it costs $200 for a license to retail cider.

SOMERSET has voted in favor of local option by a majority of 142.

KENTUCKY is the only State far reported whose corn crop is placed at 100 per cent.

TODD County, by a majority of 734, has recently decided to experiment with prohibition.

EIGHT persons were sent to the penitentiary at a recent term of the Union Circuit Court.

It's a little early to begin the fight, but candidates for the Legislature are bobbing up all over the State.

The labor convention at Chicago endorsed two Democratic nominees for Congress and one Republican.

SPAKER CARLISLE thinks the Democrats could carry Kansas, if a division was made on the tariff question.

DEMOCRATS: let's all pitch in and give our nominee,—Garrett S. Wall,—a steady majority on the 2nd day of November.

UNDER a recent ordinance passed at Lexington, one policeman killed over eighty dogs—"Death to dogs," is the cry in that city.

THESE Confederates of Madison County are raising a fund to erect a monument to the memory of their comrades who fell in the battle of Richmond in 1862.

COVINGTON will invest $500,000 in new waterworks. At the recent election the people voted overwhelmingly in favor of building the reservoir above Newport.

MAYFIELD, KY., has an ordinance which makes it unlawful to whistle on the streets between 10 p. m. and 6 a. m. Sixteen hours' whistling ought to satisfy most any one.

Ir will require the full Democratic vote to insure success Tuesday, November 2. Go to the polls that day and vote for Garrett S. Wall, and see that your neighbor does likewise.

PROFESSOR Crandall, of Lexington, locates the diamond fields of Kentucky on Isom's Creek, in Elliott County. The fields are there, but it's an unsettled question whether there are any diamonds or not.

The election for Congressman will be held Tuesday, November 2, and every Democrat in the county of Mason who has the interests of his party at heart will go to the polls that day and vote for Garrett S. Wall.

JUDGE THOMAS' benchmen and wire workers have been industrious since his nomination but they are working on the sly. Thomas thinks he will ambush the Democrats in November but he is doomed to disappointment. We are on to his game. Comrades, be vigilant and do your duty.

"THE tariff question is one that the Democrats can not afford to shirk or dodge," says Speaker Carlisle. He adds: "If the Republicans could gain power they would undoubtedly revise the tariff, but they would do it in the interest of the protectionists, and not for the purpose of reducing taxes."

The City Council of Atlanta, Ga., by a vote of ten to six, has given brewer permission to deliver beer at private residences. This will likely settle it with prohibition as far as Atlanta is concerned. The members of the council from their own observation probably concluded that "prohibition doesn't prohibit."

An act passed by the last Legislature makes it unlawful for cattle or stock of any kind to run at large upon the Mayfield and Gormanton, and the Mayfield and Lexington turnpikes. The penalty is a fine of not less than $1 nor more than $20, and the cattle will be levied upon and sold for the payment of the fine.

The success of the Democrats in this district hereafter will depend to a great extent upon the result of the election Tuesday, Nov. 2. Every member of the party who has its interests at heart will forget past differences, if he has any, and put his shoulder to the wheel and help roll up a rousing majority for the nominee, Garrett S. Wall.

The Republican party is making a desperate effort to overcome the Democratic majority in the House of Representatives. In this they will hardly succeed. The Democrats, however, should labor earnestly to gain as many Congressmen as possible. In this district we have a splendid chance to gain one member, and will do so if every member of the party will work from now on and get out a full vote.

The Gathering of the Democratic Class.

The cordial and enthusiastic reception extended to Judge Wall by the gallant and faithful Democracy of our sister counties will be gratefully remembered by the Democracy of old Mason; and it will be taken as an additional proof that the differences heretofore existing in our local politics have been finally adjusted in the interest of the Democracy at large. The contagion of "progress and reform" is in the air. The great Democratic administration of Grover Cleveland is making its influence felt in all quarters of the Republic. Everywhere it is enthusiastically applauded and endorsed, and not only by Democrats, but by the best men of every party in the land. The significance of this endorsement cannot be mistaken. It means simply that the country no longer has any use for political aspirants who are shameless enough to boast that they have made a life long "business of politics." The Jeffersonian standard is again to be applied to our public men, and a satisfactory certificate of "honesty and competency" will henceforth be the only passport to popular favor. By universal admission, the Democratic candidate for Congress in this district is both "honest and competent," and this is the explanation of the enthusiasm which rallies the Democracy to his standard wherever he goes.

JUDGE THOMAS is expected home from his "Kansas trip" Saturday.

SPAKER CARLISLE has been re-nominated for Congress by the Democrats of the Covington district. The convention was an enthusiastic one. He had no opposition and will not likely have any in November. Carlisle, as a statesman, has no superiors, and but few peers. Kentucky has no public man of whom she is prouder and whom she will take more delight in honoring.

GARRETT S. WALL is doing his part of the work in the Congressional fight, and every member of the Democratic party should take enough interest in its success and welfare to turn out November 2nd, and vote for it's nominee. See that you do it, Democrats. Let Mason, Bracken, Robertson, Fleming and Nicholas, in this end of the district, cast a voting vote for a Democratic Congressman.

THE news from Washington is that the President will soon appoint a successor to Capt. Gross who lately resigned the U. S. Marshalship of this State. There are several applicants, but the contest is said to be between Col. Hugh Rogers, and Capt. Leary. A petition consisting of over 20,000 names has been forwarded in Rogers' favor. He is undoubtedly the choice of Central and Eastern Kentucky. As Chief Deputy under Capt. Gross, Rogers has demonstrated his efficiency and ability.

Gleanings From Our Exchanges.
The prospects are now very flattering for Wall and Kitchen in this county, and the indications are that they will receive at least 100 majority in Boyd.—Cynthiana Democrat.

The Republicans are trying to organize and make a still hunt in this Congressional district. When the election is over they will be still hunting for something they did not get.—Kentucky Democrat.

HON. G. S. Wall is gaining strength with the people. They will find him a man of sound views on political questions, and one who will be in accord with his party on all questions. The Democrats of the district are growing tired of being represented by Republicans, and Judge Thomas will find his "bar" insufficient to boot him into Congress. He has been defeated in the last two races he has made, and the people look upon him as a broken-down politician, who had to be pensioned in the U. S. District Attorney's office.—Flemingsburg Times-Democrat.

GARRET S. WALL returned to this city on Friday last from a canvass of Bath and Fleming counties, well pleased with his reception in every locality he visited. This week he is in Greenup, and he will keep going and actively working for his own success and that of the party, until the day of the election. The Democrats of the district should reward his industry and zeal by coming out in all their strength and giving him their full vote.

There is not one valid, sound public reason, why any man in the district who considers himself a Democrat, and wishes to be so regarded by others, should vote against Judge Wall, nor one why such a man should fail to vote for him. There are many reasons why Republicans in Mason County who have known him well, and wish to have at Washington a Representative who will be decent and sober in his personal conduct, and prompt and industrious in attending to all the practical business needs of his constituents, of all parties, honest and above all suspicion of corruption, shall give him a friendly support, as a fellow county man. Let us roll up a good majority for him at his own home.—Eagle.

HECHINGER & CO.

Show, to-day, the most elegant line of

HATS AND CAPS

ever seen here. They also show, to-day, the largest assortment of Fine TAILOR-MADE in the State. The prices they name on these goods will be found remarkably reasonable. Drop in and see them at the Oddfellows' Hall Clothing Store.

SILK and SATIN-LINED SUITS

To : The : Public!

There is a report started that I intend closing out my business and moving to a place where I can live in comfort. I most emphatically deny the report, as I have no intention of leaving Maysville, but will keep my well-known fine stock constantly replete with the newest goods. I will have this Fall the finest stock of Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry and Silverware ever offered in Maysville. All my goods are marked down in general are cordially invited to call at my establishment when in want of anything in the Jewelry line. Respectfully,

H. LANCE, The Jeweler,
43 Second Street, Maysville, Ky.

J. BALLENGER.

DIAMONDS.

WATCHES, and JEWELRY.

SPECTACLES.

FANCY GOODS.

CLOSING OUT

FOR CASH.

Nesbitt & McKrell, having determined to quit the Dry Goods business, will commence on MONDAY, AUGUST 2, selling their stock of very desirable at FIRST COST, FOR CASH. We mean what we say! Domestic, Parasols, Hosiery and a very large stock of fashionable Dress Goods, and everything else, all go at first cost and less. Come early if you want the choice of bargains.

DRY GOODS and NOTIONS

Those indebted to us will please call and settle.

NESBITT & M'KRELL.

13 lbs. Pure Granulated Sugar.....$1 00
14 lbs. Coffee (A.) Sugar.....1 00
15 lbs. Light Brown Sugar.....1 00
16 lbs. Good Brown Sugar.....1 00
17 lbs. Choice White Sugar.....1 00
1 lb. best Roasted Golden Rio Coffee.....15
17 lbs. Choice Green Coffee.....1 00
1 lb. Arna and Hammer Soda.....5
1 lb. Jews Baking Powder.....20
1 can New American Sardines.....5
1 can New Mackerel.....10
1 gal. best Coal Oil.....10
1 gal. N. O. Molasses.....40
1 gal. best Sorghum Molasses.....25
Headquarters for fine Vinegar and Spices for Pickling.

THE KENTUCKY CENTRAL R. R.

"BLUE GRASS ROUTE."

Shortest and Quickest Route

From Central Kentucky to all points

North, East, West and South.

Fast Line between

LEXINGTON and CINCINNATI.

Schedule in effect May 15, 1886.

NORTH. NO. 53 Except Sunday.

Leave Covington.....	2 00 p.m.
Leave Lexington.....	2 15 p.m.
Leave Paris.....	5 20 p.m.
Arrive Frankfort.....	5 45 a.m.
" Louisville.....	6 00 a.m.
" Johnson.....	6 56 p.m.
" Maysville.....	7 00 p.m.

SOUTH. NO. 54 Except Sunday.

Leave Maysville.....	5 15 a.m.
" Marshall.....	5 a.m.
" Maysville.....	5 p.m.
" Cincinnati.....	6 20 a.m.
" Louisville.....	2 28 p.m.
" Frankfort.....	4 15 p.m.
" Lexington.....	5 00 p.m.
" Johnson.....	6 10 p.m.
" Maysville.....	7 00 p.m.

Note—Trains # 5 and 4 run between Winchester, Lexington and Cincinnati; other trains are really except Sunday.

Direct connection is made with Winchester with Chesapeake and Ohio for Mt. Sterling, Ashland, Huntington, Charleston, W. Va. and Eastern Ky.

Fast Line—No. 3 and 4 run via Winchester, Mt. Sterling, Ashland, Huntington, and between Cincinnati and Richmond, Va., and Winchester and Washington, D. C.

Trains are late and may be checked to any destination reached by a railroad.

If you desire to travel, call on any agent of the company, or D. A. Fox, Traveling Passenger Agent, Lexington, Ky.; S. F. Morris, General Passenger Agent, Covington, Ky.

H. E. HUNTINGTON, Receiver.

General offices, Covington, Ky.

DRESS GOODS,

CLOAKS

We take pleasure in announcing to our friends and customers that our stock for Fall and Winter is now complete, and desire to call particular attention to our line of DRESS GOODS and CLOAKS, which have been carefully selected in the Eastern markets, containing many new and desirable styles, which are offered at prices as low as the lowest. Do not fail to see us.

BROWNING & CO.,

3 East Second Street.

Grasp the Opportunity

WHILE GOODS ARE CHEAP!

W. HILL.

13 lbs. Pure Granulated Sugar.....$1 00
14 lbs. Coffee (A.) Sugar.....1 00
15 lbs. Light Brown Sugar.....1 00
16 lbs. Good Brown Sugar.....1 00
17 lbs. Choice White Sugar.....1 00
1 lb. best Roasted Golden Rio Coffee.....15
17 lbs. Choice Green Coffee.....1 00
1 lb. Arna and Hammer Soda.....5
1 lb. Jews Baking Powder.....20
1 can New American Sardines.....5
1 can New Mackerel.....10
1 gal. best Coal Oil.....10
1 gal. N. O. Molasses.....40
1 gal. best Sorghum Molasses.....25
Headquarters for fine Vinegar and Spices for Pickling.

CEO. H. HEISLER.

Ah, There!

1 gal. choice N. O. Molasses.....$1 35
1 box Sardines.....1 00
Gunpowder Tea.....45, 50, 60
Watermelons, all kinds of cheap and fine Groceries and Bins.

LIVERY AND FEED STABLE.

I have opened a Livery and Feed Stable in Maysville and solicit a share of the patronage of the public. I have a stable for horses, Buggies and Horses for hire at any time. Terms reasonable.

JOSEPH BROWN.

Dr. L. T. LEWIS,
Mt. Sterling, Ky.

VETERINARY SURGEON

For the celebrated farrier Miles in cast-iron, who is now in a position to practice as a specialist. Write to him for circulars.

Refers to Dr. Lewis, and Dr. Lewis, of Flemingsburg, and Marchiony, of Maysville, etc.

Hard Times.

While money is close, wages and prices low, expenses should be low. Economy is the watch word for Mothers, head of Doctor bills, and also in keeping in health. Take a full dose of Dr. B. O. Franks' Cold and Lung Syrup. Stops a Cough instantly, relieves expectoration, cures Croup and pain in the Chest. It is one of the best medicines for hard times. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Samples free. Sold by George T. Wood.

Wild Cherry and Tar.

Every body knows the virtue of Wild Cherry and Tar as a relief and cure for any affection of the Throat and Lungs, combined with those of the Liver and Kidneys. It is a valuable remedy by the natives.

Tongaline is a compound of Tonga with other ingredients whose curative properties have been thoroughly tested.

Tongaline does no unpleasant effects.

It contains no Opium or Morphine.

PRICE ONE DOLLAR.

A. A. MELLIER, Solo Proprietor, 700 and 711 WASHINGTON AVENUE, ST. LOUIS.

EQUITY GROCERY.

—Established 1865 by

G. W. GEISEL.

Fruit and vegetables in season. Your patronage is respectfully solicited. Second Street, nearly opposite opera house, Mayville, Ky.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

THURSDAY EVE, OCTOBER 7, 1886

INDICATIONS: "For Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee fair weather, stationary temperate."

WHITE SOAP 5 cents, at Calhoun's.

THE CITY COUNCIL will meet to-night.

FRESH oysters at Shepard's Restaurant, opposite depot. 55¢

OPENING-to-day at Mrs. L. V. Davis', No. 30 Second street.

For thirty days, great bargains in wallpaper, at J. T. Kackley's. 61¢(2)

BUREAU HOLIDAY is slowly recovering from a spell of typhoid fever.

OYSTERS served in all styles at Shepard's Restaurant, opposite depot.

GO TO M. ARCHDEACON for the latest styles of Mikado hair goods and ornaments.

DON'T fail to see the elegant line of ladies' and children's wraps, at Mrs. L. V. Davis'.

ELDER J. S. SWENNEY is serving his eighteenth year as pastor of the Christian Church at Paris.

SPLENDID weather for making photographs. New back ground with rustic effects, at Kackley's.

THE market at Lexington is overstocked with Irish potatoes. They are selling at thirty-five cents a bushel.

CAPT. VAL P. COLLINS was unanimously elected President of the School Board at Covington the other day.

MRS. BESSIE MILLER OTON will give an entertainment in Washington Opera House some time next month.

DANVILLE has subscribed $25,000 to the Louisville Southern Railroad, the vote standing 405 to 1 in favor of the proposal.

WILLIAM R. DARNALL, of the Orangeburg neighborhood, left last night for Mound City, Mo., where he will hereafter reside.

THE marriage of Dr. W. H. Lawill, one of the solid citizens of the Mayslick vicinity, and Miss Lula Melford will take place next week.

MR. THOMAS NOLIN has opened his oyster saloon at Bierley's confectionery store. Oysters served at all hours. Oysters by the can or quart.

TWENTY-SEVEN Shorthorn cattle were sold the other day at Lexington for $3,910, an average of $145. Thirty more sold for $1,800, an average of $60 per head.

HAWTHORNE HILL, a prominent newspaper man of Louisville, formerly of this city, and Miss Lillian Sawyer will be married at Frankfort on the 14th of this month.

A PARTY at Portsmouth was recently fined $25 for shooting partridges before the game law expired. The authorities should see that the law is enforced in this country.

PROFESSOR CLARENCE PINGUELY has recovered from the injuries he received several weeks ago at Escalpia. It was his father's death which we noted in a recent issue.

THE ladies of the M. E. Church, South, will serve oysters and lunch every Saturday evening from 5 to 10 o'clock in the room adjoining Commonwealth's drug store. Proceeds for benefit of the church.

ANOTHER batch of nineteen moonshiners was landed in the Louisville jail the other day. They hail from Harlan and Leslie counties, and had been "run in" to Col. Hugh Rogers and his assistants.

A DERREICK used in the construction of the railroad bridge over Big Branch Creek broke the other day, letting a large stone fall on John Stiebe, one of the employees. His injuries are fatal, his back being broken.

PHYSICIANS regular Tongaline as necessary preparation in cases of rheumatism, neuralgia and nervous headache. It is steadily gaining in public favor here, so says Messrs. Hayes & Caswell, druggists, of Rockford, Ill.

The tenacity with which people abide by their own faith in Ayer's Saraparilla is explained by the fact that it is the best blood medicine ever used, and is not equalled in excellence by any new candidate for public favor.

COMMUNION services at the Central Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning. Preaching-to-night, to-morrow night and Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. Russell Cecil, will be assisted by Rev. J. C. Chisholm, of Harrodsburg.

JAMES H. FELTON, formerly of this city, who held a position as salesman in the dry goods house of E. B. Nugent, of Louisville, Ky., has accepted a position as agent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, of New York, with his office at Louisville.

G. P. HUNTINGTON has made a proposition through Albert Neiter to buy the Cincinnati and Eastern Railway, running from Cincinnati to Portsmouth, and the negotiations are quietly progressing with the chance of ultimate success. In case he buys it, the road will be changed to a standard gauge.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

EVERY day brings fresh testimony of the superiority of Ballenger's Diamond soap over any others. A lady who had not been able, with any others, to see the eye of a needle for years, sees perfectly with the Diamond. Others, after a few weeks, are able to distinguish the use of spectacles entirely. For sale by Ballenger.

THE uncut tobacco in parts of Kenton County was so seriously damaged by the recent frosts as to make it entirely worthless, and it will be abandoned, says the Covington Commonwealth. Similar reports come from other sections of the State. The greater part of the crop, however, had been housed and escaped any damage.

LADIES of the beautiful were delighted last evening by the blooming of a cereus grandiflorus,—a night-flowering cactus, at the home of Mr. Walker, the popular florist, of Forest avenue. Quite a number of his friends witnessed the unfolding of seven of the beautiful, waxy buds. Several more are expected to bloom this evening, and the sight will well repay a visit.

THE announcement of City Marshal James Heflin as a candidate for re-election next January appears in this issue. He has given entire satisfaction in the discharge of his duties the past year and has made a most excellent official. His ability and efficiency is unquestioned, and the man who decides to oppose him may as well face the fact that he has a hot fight before him.

THE announcement of City Marshal James Heflin as a candidate for re-election next January appears in this issue. He has given entire satisfaction in the discharge of his duties the past year and has made a most excellent official. His ability and efficiency is unquestioned, and the man who decides to oppose him may as well face the fact that he has a hot fight before him.

THE Citizens' Coal Company has just received a fresh supply of coal. The following named gentlemen are the authorized agents of the company, and all orders left with them will receive prompt attention: James Redmond, Jr., West Second street; Hugh Shannon, corner Fourth and Plum; W. H. Wallingford, Fifth ward, opposite Hall's plow works. Ogden J. Hamilton, Agent.

COLONEL HAWKINS, prominent citizen of Mercer County, this State, was murdered the other day, and Mrs. Loretta Munday, Mrs. Davis, Ed Carter and Jim Elkin have since been arrested for the crime. Mrs. Munday is under indictment for poisoning her husband a few years ago to secure his life insurance of $20,000, and the circumstantial evidence strongly engrossed resolutions on the death of Gen. Haddock were exhibited.

RUNNING a Religious Daily.

Mr. John Dougall, who recently died in Edinburgh, Scotland, was a noted penman in Canada. The Edinburgh Daily Witness. The paper is unique in its way, being a daily religious paper. Mr. Dougall tried to repeat the experiment in this city, but it proved a failure. I remember talking with him about it, and he said that he had to leave Edinburgh, Scotland, when a young man, and with a value filled with goods became a sort of peddler. He was prosperous and went into the book business and became editor of a religious paper.

Speaking on this subject he said: "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

THE荔人 of the荔人 to be said. "I long cherished the idea of starting a weekly paper, giving the news and also being devoted to the spiritual wants of the people—that is, advancing every good cause. I began it in 1860, and it was a success. I could not sell it for one cent would not succeed. I intended to begin the daily until 1869, when the Prince of Wales visited Canada. I could not get any body to sell it at first. I finally succeeded in getting it up, and it ran up to nearly $100,000 a month, an unheard of thing in Montreal." About sixteen years ago Mr. Dougall came here to try and get the religious weekly to start a daily edition. They refused, and he never started one himself, but, like the World, was a religious paper, it proved a failure. It finally gave up the daily ghost, but still continues as a weekly—in this evening, Mr. Carton."

OLD WORLD DISPATCHES.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE OF A MAN ON A VISIT TO THE ALPS.

A Belief That He Was Murdered and Thrown Into the Rhine—Comments on Churchill—The Bulgarian Situation, Earthquake Disasters—Notes.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—One of the chief topics of conversation in English and American society on the continent for two months past has been the mysterious disappearance of Arthur Molynaux Royds during a visit to the Alps. So many wild versions of the story are abroad that it was with some diffidence that Mr. Gaye, one of the few friends of Gustavus Royds who professed to have been Mr. Royds' companion on the trip, was finally traced. In an interview with Mr. Gaye at his splendid mansion in Ealing, Middlesex, the United Press correspondent learned that Mr. Royds belongs to an ancient Lancashire family, is quite wealthy, about thirty years of age and muscular.

Mr. Gaye and Mr. Royds toured together for a month in the Alpine countries, staying longer than usual at St. Moritz, where on the evening of August 2, intending to start for Calais by the 9:30 p. m. train. Having considerable idle time on their hands they strolled about town, took dinner, and then went down to a crowded beer garden. At 7 o'clock in the night suddenly vanished and had not been seen since. He could not have departed by the train as Mr. Gaye had his ticket, the brasses for his luggage, and the bulk of his money. The station police were called and searched, and the police scoured the town for a trace of the missing man, without avail.

Mr. Gaye and other friends of Royds' spent money freely in endeavoring to find some clue as to his whereabouts. Detectives soon learned that his name and address were inserted in all the principal newspapers, station bulletins, houses, hotels and public houses were filled with portraits of the missing man, and large rewards were offered for any information regarding his fate. The case curiously resembles the disappearance of Mr. Arthur Norton.

Mr. Royds' position would have secured him prompt assistance at any foreign office or any of the British consulates, stations and embassies in the Balkans had he not been examined for miles without success, and every effort of his having been seen here and there thoroughly sifted and proven to be groundless.

The Swiss police cling to the theory that first, and then, the body was found near the station platform into town where confederates robbed and murdered him, throwing the body into the Rhine, the swift current carrying it many miles before the search was commenced.

Churchill's Policy.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 7.—The Journal de St. Petersburg, commenting on Lord Churchill's speech of Saturday last, setting forth the policy of the Conservatives, says that it will do nothing to encourage the Irish and the Hindoo. The English are to oppose the people who are only anti-slavery, but, it will be agreed, that England will support the cause of the slaves. Lord Churchill's distinction between peaceable and aggressive powers is very original. What power years ago proposed to revolutionize the world? It was England. Which powers shifted the pieces of the configuration? England having now resolved to maintain the entente cordiale, and to settle all international difficulties the Journal hopes she will second Russia's efforts in Bulgaria for the same object at this critical moment.

The Journal points to the bad condition of affairs in Bulgaria and declares that Russia's sole object is to preserve Bulgaria and allow the excited passions of the tribes to subside, while England gives the people a chance to choose freely, in their nature judgment, delegates who will make known their country's true wishes. Since this work of pacification responds to the wishes of all interests except the dictators, who have seized and will retain power, the Journal considers Lord Randolph Churchill's co-operation assured and sincerely rejoices at it.

Affairs at Soha.

SOHA, Oct. 7.—The government has warned Gen. Kaulbars not to attempt to make public addresses, as it has been informed of a plot to malintend him. The government has not decided what to do with Gen. Kaulbars, last night. The general has telegraphed orders to the Bulgarian military commandant at Rustchuk to liberate all political prisoners, otherwise the general will hold him personally responsible.

Committed to Imprisonment.

MADRID, Oct. 7.—It is officially announced that the Spanish officers who led the late revolt against the government have been committed to imprisonment for life in the military prison in Africa. The government has granted pensions and full pay to the widows of Gen. Velarde and Count Mirasal, who were killed by the insurgents for refusing to join them.

Reunited the Throne of Savoy.

DISSEY, Oct. 7.—Princess Maria Josephine of King Albert Frederick of Savoy, was married here Sunday to a rich duke, Ottar, nephew of Emperor Francois Joseph, of Austria. The princess renounced for herself and her descendants all right of succession to the throne of Savoy.

The Napu Earthquake.

MANILA, Oct. 7.—Mr. Parnell intends taking his mother and sister to the south of France, and will probably visit Rome to re-bury his son. He does not expect to return for the opening of parliament.

Defrauded and Sued.

PARIS, Oct. 7.—Prince Melisano, a member of one of the leading families of Naples, has committed suicide after seeing his name posted as a defaulter in his club. He had lost heavily in gambling.

Will Visit Bisanzio.

BERLIN, Oct. 7.—It is rumored in diplomatic circles that Lord Randolph Churchill and Sir Edward Males will shortly pay an official visit to the Emperor of Bisanzio.

Kaulbars Fails for His Disturbances.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—A dispatch from Sofia states that Gen. Kaulbars received 500,000 francs to devote toward fomenting disturbances throughout Bulgaria.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Topical Items Given in a Tense and Spicy Manner.

Extremely hot weather prevails in all parts of Europe.

Work on the Hudson Bay railroad has commenced.

Charleston, S. C., has withdrawn its appeal for aid.

Bob and Alf Taylor addressed 12,000 people at Memphis last night.

Congress for the Chicago Anarchists are meeting again to-night.

W. D. Snyder & Co.'s carriage works, Denver, failed. Liabilities $30,000.

New York's committee of One Hundred nominated Orlando B. Potter for mayor.

Cuspanian, the Cincinnati who attempted suicide at Washington, Sunday, is recovering.

The Republicans of New Jersey nominated Frank Howe, of Warren county, for governor.

The Veiled Prophet, with a gorgeous pageant, paid his annual address to St. Louis last night.

The home of Leah Gaines, colored, near Augusta, Ga., burned, last night. Three children lost their lives.

Cotton mills of Philadelphia have shut down on account of a strike in one mill. Over 1,000 men are affected.

John H. G. Carlisle was, without opposition, reominated for congress by the Democrats of the Sixth Kentucky district.

Henry Ali, of St. Louis, was watching a fire, standing in a ditch. The bursting of a fire, which had started in the ditch, and the police secured the town for a trace of the missing man, without avail.

Mr. Gaye and Mr. Royds toured together for a month in the Alpine countries, staying longer than usual at St. Moritz, where on the evening of August 2, intending to start for Calais by the 9:30 p. m. train. Having considerable idle time on their hands they strolled about town, took dinner, and then went down to a crowded beer garden. At 7 o'clock in the night suddenly vanished and had not been seen since. He could not have departed by the train as Mr. Gaye had his ticket, the brasses for his luggage, and the bulk of his money. The station police were called and searched, and the police scoured the town for a trace of the missing man, without avail.

Mr. Gaye and other friends of Royds' spent money freely in endeavoring to find some clue as to his whereabouts. Detectives soon learned that his name and address were inserted in all the principal newspapers, station bulletins, houses, hotels and public houses were filled with portraits of the missing man, and large rewards were offered for any information regarding his fate. The case curiously resembles the disappearance of Mr. Arthur Norton.

Mr. Royds' position would have secured him prompt assistance at any foreign office or any of the British consulates, stations and embassies in the Balkans had he not been examined for miles without success, and every effort of his having been seen here and there thoroughly sifted and proven to be groundless.

The Swiss police cling to the theory that first, and then, the body was found near the station platform into town where confederates robbed and murdered him, throwing the body into the Rhine, the swift current carrying it many miles before the search was commenced.

Churchill's Policy.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 7.—The Journal de St. Petersburg, commenting on Lord Churchill's speech of Saturday last, setting forth the policy of the Conservatives, says that it will do nothing to encourage the Irish and the Hindoo. The English are to oppose the people who are only anti-slavery, but, it will be agreed, that England will support the cause of the slaves. Lord Churchill's distinction between peaceable and aggressive powers is very original. What power years ago proposed to revolutionize the world? It was England. Which powers shifted the pieces of the configuration? England having now resolved to maintain the entente cordiale, and to settle all international difficulties the Journal hopes she will second Russia's efforts in Bulgaria for the same object at this critical moment.

The Journal points to the bad condition of affairs in Bulgaria and declares that Russia's sole object is to preserve Bulgaria and allow the excited passions of the tribes to subside, while England gives the people a chance to choose freely, in their nature judgment, delegates who will make known their country's true wishes. Since this work of pacification responds to the wishes of all interests except the dictators, who have seized and will retain power, the Journal considers Lord Randolph Churchill's co-operation assured and sincerely rejoices at it.

Affairs at Soha.

SOHA, Oct. 7.—The government has warned Gen. Kaulbars not to attempt to make public addresses, as it has been informed of a plot to malintend him. The government has not decided what to do with Gen. Kaulbars, last night. The general has telegraphed orders to the Bulgarian military commandant at Rustchuk to liberate all political prisoners, otherwise the general will hold him personally responsible.

Committed to Imprisonment.

MADRID, Oct. 7.—It is officially announced that the Spanish officers who led the late revolt against the government have been committed to imprisonment for life in the military prison in Africa. The government has granted pensions and full pay to the widows of Gen. Velarde and Count Mirasal, who were killed by the insurgents for refusing to join them.

Reunited the Throne of Savoy.

DISSEY, Oct. 7.—Princess Maria Josephine of King Albert Frederick of Savoy, was married here Sunday to a rich duke, Ottar, nephew of Emperor Francois Joseph, of Austria. The princess renounced for herself and her descendants all right of succession to the throne of Savoy.

The Napu Earthquake.

MANILA, Oct. 7.—Mr. Parnell intends taking his mother and sister to the south of France, and will probably visit Rome to re-bury his son. He does not expect to return for the opening of parliament.

Defrauded and Sued.

PARIS, Oct. 7.—Prince Melisano, a member of one of the leading families of Naples, has committed suicide after seeing his name posted as a defaulter in his club. He had lost heavily in gambling.

Will Visit Bisanzio.

BERLIN, Oct. 7.—It is rumored in diplomatic circles that Lord Randolph Churchill and Sir Edward Males will shortly pay an official visit to the Emperor of Bisanzio.

Kaulbars Fails for His Disturbances.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—A dispatch from Sofia states that Gen. Kaulbars received 500,000 francs to devote toward fomenting disturbances throughout Bulgaria.

C. T. KNEEREAM,
Agent of the Juhing Coal Company,
Miners and Dealers of POMEROY

All orders left with us receive prompt attention. Office and Scale: 47 E. Third street.

COAL

Be Warned

In time Kidney diseases may be prevented by purifying, renewing, and invigorating the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. When, through debility, the action of the kidneys is perverted, these organs rob the blood of its needed constituent, albumen, which is passed off in the urine, while worn out matter, which they should carry off from the blood, is allowed to remain. By the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla the kidneys are restored to proper action, and Albuminuria, or

Bright's Disease

is prevented. Ayer's Sarsaparilla also prevents inflammation of the kidneys, and other disorders of these organs. Mrs. Jas. W. Weld, Forest Hill st., Jamaica Plain, Mass., writes: "I am a constant consumer of sarsaparilla, and a complete cure of diseases, but my greatest trouble has been with my kidneys. Four bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla made me feel like a new person; as well and strong as ever." W. M. McDonald, 46 Summer st., Boston, Mass., had been troubled for years with Kidney Complaint. By the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, he not only the disease from assuming a fatal form, but was restored to perfect health. John McLellan, cor. Bridge and Third st., Lowell, Mass., writes: "For several years I suffered from Dyspepsia and Kidney Complaint, the latter being so severe at times that I could scarcely attend to my work. My appetite was poor, and I was much emaciated; but by using my appetite and digestion improved, and my health was perfectly restored."

Prevented

Ayer's

Sarsaparilla

Sold by all Druggists.

Price $1; boxes, $5.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., U. S. A.

INDIGESTION

To strengthen the stomach, create an appetite and remove the bodily depression and debility which result from Indigestion, there is nothing so effective as Ayer's Pills. These Pills contain no calomel or other poisonous drug, act directly on the digestive and assimilative organs, and restore health and strength to the entire system. T. P. Bonner, Chester, Pa., writes: "I have used Ayer's Pills for the past 30 years, and am satisfied I should not have been alive to-day if it had not been for them. They are about the top figure. The advance ranges

4 to 6 cents per dose.

Missouri—$1.25; N. Y. & Erie—$2.25;

Canadian Pacific—$2; N. Y. Central—$1.25;

Long Island—$1.25; New Haven—$1.25;

Chicago & Alton—$1.25;

St. Louis—$1.25; Northwestern—$1.25;

Illinoian—$1.25; Lake Superior—$1.25;

Dick, Lack, & W.—$1.25;

Ericks—$1.25;

Ericson—$1.25;

Ernest—$1.25;

Ernest—$1.25;